

DEATH CAME TO KING ALEXANDER OF GREECE MONDAY AFTERNOON

Succumbs To Wounds Inflicted By Pet Monkey Early In Oct- ober--Former King Constantine Said To Be Contemplating Re- turning And Claiming Throne.

ATHENS, Oct. 25.—(By The Associated Press.)—King Alexander of Greece died at 5:30 P. M. today. His death was due to wounds received when a pet monkey attacked him early in October, the king being badly mutilated.

Thruout last night, the heart action grew weaker, his general debility became more pronounced and pulmonary symptoms were intense. Breathing at times was most difficult and alarming, and at noon today it was announced that the king's condition was hopeless.

The death of King Alexander gives rise to the question of succession to the Greek throne. Former King Constantine was reported, according to Swiss dispatches of October 17 as intending to take advantage of the situation created by his son's grave illness, by returning to Greece and claim the throne.

About the same time a regency was suggested and Constantine gave his opinion as follows:

"Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. I will not think of a regency yet. My plans are those of my people."

Premier Venizelos on Sunday last expressed himself as confident that Prince Paul, Constantine's third son, would not be prevented from taking the throne by his father as the latter would learn from the coming elections that there was no prospect for his return.

Both Prince Arthur of Connaught and Prince Charles of Belgium have been mentioned as possible candidates for the Greek throne. Premier Venizelos has said that foreign candidates were not being considered.

It is probable that the old chamber will be re-convened owing to the king's death to consider what steps are to be taken before the new chamber meets.

To Throne in 1917.

Alexander succeeded to the throne of Greece in June, 1917, when his father, King Constantine, abdicated in response to the demand of France, Great Britain and Russia, the three powers which had guaranteed the constitutional liberties of the Greek people.

Alexander was the second son of Constantine and at the time of his accession was not quite 24 years old. His elder brother, Crown Prince George, was considered ineligible for the throne because of alleged pro-German sympathies.

In any event, King Constantine nominated Alexander to succeed him. The fall of Constantine had been brought about through the agency of the French senator, M. Jonnart, who went to Athens in June, 1917 as a representative of the three great powers, on the ground that this step would establish unity of feeling among the Greeks and greater security for the Entente forces then operating in the east.

Constantine had been accused of pro-German sympathies partly on account of his marriage to the Princess Sophie, sister of the then Emperor William of Germany, and it also was charged that he had not acted honorably toward the Allies. Alexander, on the other hand, was reported to be free from pro-German proclivities.

Alexander took the oath of office at Athens in August and promised to carry out the policy of his father. This was said to have shocked the Entente powers. It soon was reported that he was at odds with Premier Venizelos and had refused to abandon his idea of continuing his father's program. Some doubts were raised as to the advisability of permitting him to assume the throne unless he discontinued what was characterized as an obstructive policy.

Pay Tribute to King.

Reports of lack of harmony between Alexander and Venizelos were circulated in the spring of 1920 but the Premier disposed of these in a statement in which he paid tribute to the King's patriotism. One respect in which the King and his Premier were said to have been at odds was over the King's morganatic marriage to Mile. Manos, daughter of a former aide-de-camp to his father, which is said to have taken place in November, 1919. No record of the marriage was obtainable owing to the fact that it was not recorded with the Metropolitan of Athens, the supreme ecclesiastic authority of Greece.

The young King and his morganatic wife were childhood sweet-

LEON BURGEOIS SAYS ARTICLE 10 IS OF NO EFFECT

Could be Eliminated Without Injuring Covenant

THINK IT WILL HAVE EFFECT ON ELECTION

BRUSSELS, Oct. 25.—(By The Associated Press.)—Leon Bourgeois, president of the council of the league of nations, gave his views to American newspaper correspondents last night on Article 10 of the covenant of the league of nations. Today the following authorized press official of the league of nations who had originally arranged the interview:

"M. Bourgeois to the American correspondents last night said he had been astonished to see the political discussion in America centered around Article X of the covenant.

"Article X is not in fact anything more than the moral foundation of the covenant. All that is effective in the covenant is set forth in other articles indicating penalties and sanctions."

Could Eliminate Article 10.

M. Bourgeois in the course of his statement to the correspondents Sunday night said that Article X could be eliminated without in any way modifying the effectiveness of the league of nations and declared also that it was not considered so important by Europeans as Americans.

M. Comert informed the correspondents this morning that he had explained to M. Bourgeois the importance of the remarks and requested M. Bourgeois to say whether he intended them to be published in the United States.

M. Bourgeois replied, said M. Comert that he understood the importance of what he was saying and was quite willing the interview should be printed.

COAL OPERATORS IN CLEVELAND FOR GENERAL MEETING

Called at Request of Attorney General Palmer

MAY HAVE FAIR PRICE COMMITTEE

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 25.—Hundreds of bituminous coal operators from various producing fields thruout the country reached Cleveland tonight for a general meeting here tomorrow at which a communication from Attorney General Palmer urging action toward lowering of prices for soft coal, will be taken up.

The meeting which has been called by Col. D. B. Wentz of Philadelphia, president of the National Coal Association is expected to be one of the most important in the history of the industry.

Judging from arrivals tonight it is anticipated that upwards of a thousand of the 7,000 soft coal producers of the country who have been invited to attend will participate in tomorrow's meeting and it is assured that the attorney general's communication will be the basis for a free and open discussion of the whole soft coal situation as it affects prices.

Palmer Requested Meeting.

Colonel Wentz called the general meeting at the request of Attorney General Palmer so that the attorney general's proposal might be put before all of the representatives of soft coal operators.

It was explained today that the national coal association whose membership embraces 2,500 operators with more than three fourths of the aggregate soft coal output, which will this year reach nearly 550,000,000 tons, cannot, because of the nature of its charter, take any action relating to price fixing. Because of this Colonel Wentz decided to put the matter before the general body of coal operators, but as individual representatives of the various fields.

While it is not thought that the operators at tomorrow's meeting will attempt to fix any maximum price for soft coal, it is understood that the majority of those operators in the city tonight might support a resolution favoring fair and reasonable prices and only a reasonable profit to the operators.

Fair Practice Committees.

It was also said that out of the meeting may come a resolution or recommendation for what is known as "fair practice" committees of operators in the soft coal mining fields where excessive prices have existed.

Such committees have been organized in cooperation with the attorney general's office in districts of West Virginia, Alabama, Kentucky, and other places recently. These committees are now working to eliminate all abuses in the handling of coal after it has left the mines as well as to see that mine prices wherever exorbitant are brought down.

Operators here tonight said that with the recent production of soft coal, aggregating nearly 2,000,000 tons a week, excessive prices, wherever they have prevailed, are rapidly coming down. The same operators said that thru the last year's coal emergency the great bulk of bituminous coal has been sold under contract at the mines at nominal prices.

MAKE SWING ACROSS NORTH PART OF STATE

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 25.—Len Small today began the final stretch of his campaign for election to the governorship on the Republican ticket with addresses at a number of towns and tonight issued a statement appealing to the voters of Illinois to support the national Republican ticket.

"Never since the day that the declaration of independence was signed has there been an election of greater importance than the one to be held next Tuesday," said the statement. "The men and women of our country must decide whether the United States shall remain free and independent, or whether our country shall become embroiled in the political intrigues and royal family quarrels of the old world."

"The fathers and mothers of America must answer whether their sons shall be subject to military call to protect the artificial boundary lines of European kingdoms. There is only one way to avoid entangling foreign alliances and that is to vote the straight Republican ticket."

"I appeal to every man and woman in our country to vote for themselves, their own security and prosperity to cast a vote to protect their own homes and families and the country which we all love by placing a cross in the circle at head of the Republican ticket."

Speakers on the special train carrying the Republican candidates spoke today at Pontiac, Dwight, Joliet, Morris, Ottawa, Mendota, Dixon, Polo, Freeport and Sterling.

Affairs

SHOULD SURRENDER
CONTROL OF DESTINIES

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—Senator Harding defined his position on the league of nations in a letter to Mrs. Anna C. Bird, chairman of the woman's division of the Republican state committee of Massachusetts, which was made public tonight.

"I do not know what words I could use," the letter said, "to make more clear the statement which I have made repeatedly that it is our open purpose that America shall do her part for an association with other nations to agree about understandings and agreements in the interest of the peace and the peaceful settlement of questions which might otherwise involve a resort to war in their adjustment."

"I have made my own purpose in this connection plain in every speech which I have made in the campaign."

"America should, of course, have its full part in every worthy movement of the peace and the fraternization and well-being and progress of all te peoples of the world, but we ourselves should decide the character and the extent of our own destinies and the guardianship of either our liberty or our own destinies and the guardianship of either our liberty or our conscience to any other nation or combination of nations. Our platform expresses this idea wholly and clearly; the candidates have reiterated it in every public utterance."

MACSWINEY HUNGER STRIKER SUCCUMBS IN BRIXTON PRISON

Lord Mayor of Cork Passes Away on 74th Day of Fast

POLICE TAKE STEPS TO PREVENT TROUBLE

LONDON, Oct. 25.—(By The Associated Press.)—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, the most prominent of the Irish hunger strikers and said to have been the brains of the Republican army in Ireland, died early today in Brixton prison.

The end was not unexpected for the lord mayor had been unconscious for several days. He was entering upon the seventh fourth day of his hunger strike as a protest against a sentence of twenty years imprisonment on several charges including one of having seditious documents in his possession.

Only his brother, John MacSwiney, and his private chaplain, Father Dominic, were with him when he died. Mrs. MacSwiney and the prisoner's two sisters, Annie and Mary, were at a nearby hotel.

The mayor was terribly emaciated as a result of his long abstinence from food, had been delirious for many hours and was unconscious when death came.

Family Pray Over Body

It was several hours after the lord mayor died before his brother was permitted to tell Mrs. MacSwiney the sad news. She immediately went to the prison accompanied by her parents and the Misses MacSwiney and the family group, stoical and dry-eyed, prayed over the body as it lay on the cot.

There were no untoward demonstrations outside the prison after the news of MacSwiney's death became generally known. A large force of police had been concentrated to put down any disorder that might occur. It was said at the prison that the reason for withholding permission to John MacSwiney to inform the dying man's relatives of his condition was that it was in the prisoner's interest.

Just before MacSwiney died Father Dominic and John MacSwiney knelt at the bedside and offered up prayers. The priest administered the rites of extreme unction.

Police Patrolled Streets

London, Oct. 25.—Heavy police reinforcements patrolled the streets in the vicinity of Brixton prison tonight as a precaution against disorders which the authorities feared might arise from the group of ardent MacSwiney sympathizers in London. A small crowd gathered in the vicinity of the prison and walked up and down discussing with animation the circumstances of the tragic death of the lord mayor. The people, however, showed no disposition to make trouble.

The police removed from the district materials which would be serviceable as missiles including signboards which supporters of the hunger strikers employed to excite advantage in former scimmage against the police.

HUNGER STRIKER SAID TO HAVE BEEN AMERICAN CITIZEN

Joseph Murphy Reported to Have Been Born in Lynn

PARENTS MOVED TO IRELAND AFTER BIRTH

CORK, Oct. 25.—(By The Associated Press.)—Joseph Murphy, one of the hunger strikers in Cork jail, died tonight.

The death of Murphy occurred at 8:35 p. m. He was twenty five years and unmarried.

Murphy was a member of the Irish volunteers and was well known as an athlete.

Joseph Murphy was one of eleven men incarcerated in Cork jail two days before Lord Mayor MacSwiney was sent to Brixton prison in London. All the men in Cork jail immediately went on a hunger strike. The last week, one of them, Michael Fitzgerald, died. There were reports last month that Murphy was an American citizen. It was asserted that he was born in Lynn, Mass. Secretary of State Coby was declared to be investigating the claim.

A despatch from Cork September 10 asserted that the American consul there had established the fact that Murphy was born in Lynn, but that he had been brought to Ireland when an infant by his father who is a British subject. It was asserted the government accusation against Murphy was that he had a bomb in his possession.

FOR WOMEN FIRST.

Now that she has the full right of suffrage, what will she do with her ballot, is a pertinent question to the womanhood of Illinois.

In the election of four years ago, our women had presidential suffrage. Hence to vote for presidential electors will not be a new experience to a large number of women voters. The result of that election, so far as Illinois is concerned, very clearly establishes the fact that the great majority of our women are Republican on national question.

During the war women proved their genius for organization. Toller than men, perhaps, they buried personal prejudices and predilections in behalf of co-ordinated effort. It hardly seems probable they have forgotten the lessons learned in that time of stress. If they haven't they will put aside prejudices and personal preferences again for the sake of accomplishment. They will vote to achieve harmony rather than to bring about disruption and discord.

The harmony vote is the straight vote. The trade-mark of disruption is the split ticket. In the periods when it has best served the country the solemn call of the Republican party has always been, "vote the straight Republican ticket." It is raised again and from its greatest leaders to the humblest worker in the ranks men voters have hearkened to it. So if we may make a suggestion to women voters now it is that they heed the call also.

A mark in the Republican party circle is a vote not only for every Republican candidate but for the application of Republican principles to National, State and local government. A single mis-mark on a scratched ticket, and a vote is lost entirely. There is an old saying that it is better to be safe than sorry, and the Republican party circle method of marking a ballot is the one safe method.

HARDING HAS REMAINED STEADFAST.

"Senator Harding's attitude on the question of a league of nations has not been in doubt since March 4, 1919, when 39 Senators Harding among them, joined in signing a resolution stating their position," asserts the Republican Publicity Association. That resolution declared:

"That it is the sense of the Senate that while it is their sincere desire that the nations of the world should unite to promote peace and general disarmament, the constitution of the league of nations in the form now proposed to the peace conference should not be accepted by the United States."

"That it is the sense of the Senate that the negotiations on part of the United States should immediately be directed to the utmost expedition of the urgent business of negotiating peace terms with Germany satisfactory to the United States and the nations with whom the United States is associated in the war against the German government, and that the proposal for a league of nations to insure the permanent peace of the world should be then taken up for careful and serious consideration."

"That declaration was signed by 39 Republicans—some of them popularly known as 'progressives' and some of them called 'reactionaries.' It was signed by men known as 'irreconcilables,' and by advocates of the league with the Lodge reservations. Some of the 39 disagreed upon minor particulars but were absolutely in accord upon the general proposition that the league in the form proposed by President Wilson should not be agreed to by the United States Senate as a part of the peace treaty."

"Talk of 'scrapping the league' has deception for its purpose. All 39 of the signers of the resolution above quoted are on record as favoring the scrapping of the league in the form proposed by the British-Wilson framers. But they are not in favor of scrapping the league and leaving the subject of permanent peace without further consideration. They have declared their purpose to take up the subject on its own merits when a form of agreement can be arrived at thru the channels of open diplomacy, by which means the American people may have a voice in saying by what sort of covenants they shall be bound. They propose that the obligations to be assumed by the United States shall be fully and freely discussed before the terms of the agreement are finally framed, and that the United States shall not be compelled to bind itself to a covenant made in foreign lands, in secret conclave and without opportunity to change a word of the document. They are determined that when this nation is bound to a contract more important than any other in its history there shall be full opportunity to make definite and specific all the provisions which limit American rights and powers, or that impose obligations. They propose to study the contract first and sign afterward, rather than accede to the Wilson demand to sign first and study it afterward.

"President Wilson gave no opportunity for the American people, thru their representatives, to make changes in the terms of the covenant. He declared when he went to France that he would bring back a treaty with a league covenant woven into it in such a manner that it must be adopted without change.

"Because it was un-American in substance and in the manner of its framing submission, the British-Wilson league has been scrapped—it is dead—and in due time a deliberative body of duly chosen American citizens will take up in orderly and open manner the problem of promoting world peace."

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

Those Prices.

The price of a cake and motor cars has reached a lower spot; but necessities, like cigars, still cost a frightful lot. The price of many silken duds is lower, I admit; but when I price a speck of spuds I straightway have a fit. I could exist without a hat all trimmed with costly lace; but must have some bacon fat to feed my haggard face. Expensive hats have slumped, they say, but bacon does not fall, and so I bash my headpiece gray against the kitchen wall. The price has slumped on linens, which ought to soothe my soul; but when I buy a can of beans it puts me in the hole. The things we really do not need are slumping, you will find, and here a buck and there a seed of prices have declined; the doo-dads worn by gilded loons less, if loons will buy; but oh, my friends, the poor man's prunes are still too beastly high. Don't think the profiteers are dead because some prices shrink; still they crouch on our bread, on-all we eat and drink. Until this profiteering stops, the situation's blue; we can't afford to buy the hops and raisins when we'd brew.

Be sure to register today if you have not done so. Go in person.

Funerals

Cocking.

The funeral services for Mrs. Sarah J. Cocking were held yesterday from Grace M. E. church at 2:30 p. m. There were many friends and relatives present in spite of the condition of the weather. The death of Mrs. Cocking marks another link gone from one of the oldest and largest families of Pike county, her father coming to that locality while the Indians were still there. The various branches of the family now being located all over the county and without exception, all are engaged in agriculture, the same as their father and grandparent.

All of the remaining children of the old Reynolds family were present as were many of the grandchildren and great grandchildren. Those from out of the city were: J. Whit Reynolds of Lyons, Kansas, William T. Reynolds and H. Lee Reynolds of Perry, Pike county, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds of Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Erick, Mr. and Mrs. John Dorsey. The ladies of the W. C. T. U. attended in a body. There were brief prayers at the residence of her son, Mr. William Cocking on Sandusky street. At the church Mrs. H. C. Woltman, accompanied by Mrs. Edgar Martin sang two beautiful solos, "Some Time We'll Understand" and "Those Golden Bells." The minister, Dr. Tull read the obituary and spoke lovingly of the departure of this one of his little flock here in the city. Assisting him were Rev. Wetzel and Dr. J. R. Harker. These two gentlemen spoke of their memory and acquaintance with the Reynolds family and of Mrs. Cocking in particular.

Years ago Mr. Wetzel and his brother came to school to Mrs. Cocking and he told her early life, her conversion and her subsequent christian life, showing how all down the years her every effort had been for good and for the uplift of the community in which she lived. Such words as these can only give sympathy and good feeling to the mourning relatives and friends. Dr. Harker told of how, over fifty-six years ago, two young girls came from old Pike and started to school at the Womans College, of their life and work in the college and his later acquaintance with these two girls. One of the girls was Mrs. Cocking and the other was her sister, Mrs. Robert Buckthorpe, who preceded her sister in death, about twelve years ago. Dr. Harker in his remarks said that he thought that Perry was renowned for the class of people which it produced, their strong ideas and staunch principles going far in the strengthening and upbuilding of the county and state.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Henry Rodgers, Lyle Lamb, Thomas Hopper, Alfred Capps, Hugh Green and Jas. I. Graham. The beautiful floral offering was in charge of Mrs. R. A. Gates, Mrs. P. V. Coover, Mrs. Clarence Reed and Miss Zelma Hackman.

Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery.

One of the girls was Mrs. Cocking and the other was her sister, Mrs. Robert Buckthorpe, who preceded her sister in death, about twelve years ago. Dr. Harker in his remarks said that he thought that Perry was renowned for the class of people which it produced, their strong ideas and staunch principles going far in the strengthening and upbuilding of the county and state.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Henry Rodgers, Lyle Lamb, Thomas Hopper, Alfred Capps, Hugh Green and Jas. I. Graham. The beautiful floral offering was in charge of Mrs. R. A. Gates, Mrs. P. V. Coover, Mrs. Clarence Reed and Miss Zelma Hackman.

Burial was in Diamond Grove cemetery.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS NEWSPAPER MAN DIES

HARRISBURG, Ill., Oct. 25.—J. W. Richardson, aged 66, one of the best known newspapermen in southern Illinois, died at his home here last night. He founded the Harrisburg Chronicle 40 years ago and has been in the newspaper business ever since.

Mr. Richardson had been secretary of four Masonic bodies for the past 35 years and was secretary of the school board for 30 years.

COUNCIL CONSIDERS LICENSE ORDINANCE

Begin Work on Revision of Ordinance Regulating License Fees—Will Charge Carnivals $300 a Week.

The city council at its regular session Monday evening took up the ordinance regulating license fees. The ordinance is a voluminous one and will require a lot of work before it is in shape to pass.

Only about half of the ordinance had been read when adjournment was taken. The council again discussed the much mooted license for street carnivals and the fee was fixed at a flat rate of $300 per week.

O. P. Fox appeared before the council and asked that it co-operate in the celebration of armistice day. Mr. Fox spoke for the Service Star Legion and other military organizations in the city. The council voiced its hearty co-operation in any exercises that might be arranged and the mayor was instructed to issue a proclamation asking all merchants to close their places of business on that afternoon that their employees might participate in the exercises.

The Proceedings.

Roll call showed all members present except Ald. Ehnie. Mayor Crabtree presiding. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved as read.

Claims against the city were presented and all those properly proved were ordered paid.

Ald. Moore reported that one of the fire trucks had been varnished and was back in the department. He invited inspection of the work.

A resolution was adopted providing for the transfer of certain money in the West College street paving fund to the special account fund as all of the bonds for the pavement on that street had been paid.

Asks Co-Operate to Cooperate.

Odair F. Fox was present and addressed the council relative to the observance of armistice day. Mr. Fox spoke for the Service Star Legion and the various military organizations.

Calling attention to the fact that Armistice day was close at hand Mr. Fox said that members of the Service Star Legion planned to plant some of the trees on Victory drive at Manuvalsterre lake on the afternoon of that day.

The speaker said that the day would be most appropriate for such exercises. The Legion and other military organizations were anxious that there be a general observance of the day for that reason he asked the cooperation of the council in the matter and also to have the mayor issue a proclamation asking merchants to close their stores during the exercises.

Mr. Fox said it was purposed to have a parade from the downtown district to the lake and that it was hoped the schools would be closed in order that the school children could participate in the parade and see the exercises.

Mayor Crabtree assured Mr. Fox of the interest of the council in the exercises and said that they would do everything possible to make the affair a success.

On motion of Ald. Chapin seconded by Ald. Moore the mayor was instructed to issue the proclamation and that the council arrange to take part in the exercises of the day. The mayor also was instructed to appoint a committee to attend the meeting at the public library Tuesday evening and assist in the plans. The mayor named Aldermen Moore and Cain.

C. C. Carter and D. M. Keating were present and asked for relief from storm water in front of their properties on South Main street. The mayor said the council was still trying to solve the problem and hoped to give relief soon.

License Fee Ordinance.

The council then took up the ordinance regulating license fees. The ordinance was read section by section. A number of changes were made in the present fees, the most important of which was the fee for street carnivals which was fixed at a flat rate of $300 per week.

Ald. McGinnis called attention to the fact that Otis Hoffman had not built a walk in East Independence avenue for which he had a contract. Mr. McGinnis said that Hoffman had told him that he would lay the walk but shortly afterward had told Ald. Flynn that he did not intend to build it.

On motion of Ald. Flynn, seconded by Ald. McGinnis the clerk was instructed to notify Mr. Hoffman to proceed to lay all walks for which he had contracts or the city would begin proceedings against his bondsman.

No further business appearing the council on motion adjourned.

Workmanship

Workmanship enters into a suit of clothes with more significance than into almost anything manufactured—especially into merchant tailoring.

Did you ever stop to think how important a good tailor really is. Modern cloth making is a highly developed art and yet a poor tailor can ruin the finest piece of cloth with a few false strikes of scissors or needle. In my shop work is done properly. Fit, finish and style of each garment are guaranteed to be correct. Drop in and see the goods—some of the finest in the United States. Ask to see a finished coat and examine the work on it. Then get prices. You will find that a good customs suit is remarkably low priced when you know where and how to buy.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS START

Dr. E. E. Violette Begins Series of Meetings at Central Christian Church—Services Sunday Were Filled With Enthusiasm.

The special evangelistic meeting at the Central Christian church started Sunday morning with fine interest and enthusiasm. Several months has been spent by the church in preparation for the coming of Dr. E. E. Violette, whose life and work have been known to this community from his boyhood.

In the morning he spoke briefly on the subject: "Does the Christian life pay?" At night the subject was: "The Abiding Word of God." In both messages he lifted his hearers up to great expectations as to the future of the meeting. The day was really a get-acquainted Sunday.

Last night Dr. Violette spoke on "The Man Who God Forgot." It was a thrilling story of the life of Solomon, with word pictures of the various dreams and hopes that move men to success or failure. "Success plus God is success indeed. Success minus God is dismal failure. Man minus God is lost in sin; man plus God is divine."

All of the Scripture lessons are read by Dr. Violette from memory and this is one of the outstanding characteristics of his work. The lessons are announced in advance, and already there is a great interest in Bible study. Tonight the lesson announced is Galatians 6 and 1 John 3; the subject: "The Word of God About Jacksonville."

Prof. R. W. Pollock, in charge of the singing, is pleasing with his fine leadership and beautiful solos. Mrs. Pollock is at the piano, and her music is a great help. A volunteer choir is singing nightly, but great congregational singing will be a feature of the meeting.

The people of this community cannot afford to miss the opportunity that is offered them in the preaching of Dr. Violette. Born on a farm eleven miles west of the city, he has grown to manhood after a fashion which shows that America is indeed a land of opportunity. He has preached and lectured in Europe, Great Britain, the Near and Far Orient and in every state in the Union.

Many of his old schoolmates of Jacksonville know of the difficulties he had to encounter and surmount, and now they take a personal pride in his success. He brings the rich experience of world-wide travel with the same enthusiasm of his youth back to the land of his boyhood and into the pulpit of one of the churches where he worshipped as a boy. Some went to hear him Sunday out of curiosity; they went last night to think and pray. "He makes me glad I'm alive," was the way one of his hearers put it last night.

The song service begins promptly at seven-thirty every night. Dr. Pontius, minister of Central Christian church, is kept busy with the work of organization, and he has planned several special features that will make for the success of the meeting. One particular matter that will interest mothers is that they may take their small children and they will be cared for in the nursery, provided for their accommodation.

In the graveyard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave
Lies the one we love so dearly,
In his lonesome silent grave.

The flowers we lay upon your grave,
May wither and decay.

Will never fade away.

HENRY WARD PEARSON IN ORGAN RECITAL

Director of College of Music at Illinois Woman's College Appears in Recital at Music Hall Monday Evening—Audience Well Pleased.

The second formal recital given by Mr. Henry Ward Pearson since coming to Jacksonville was given yesterday evening in Music Hall at the Illinois Woman's College. His work in the capacity of organist at Grace church and his appearances at various types of musical events last season the friends who came to hear him had been led to expect a program of unusual interest and in this the audience was not disappointed.

It would be difficult to single out particular numbers from the varied program which represented a variety of schools of composition, tho the audience expressed keen pleasure by giving prolonged applause to the numbers by Handel and Gullmunt.

At the close of the program Mr. Pearson responded to the insistent applause and played "An Evening Song" by Martin.

The success of the evening reflects great credit on the Director of the College of Music and thru him upon the school which he tirelessly serves.

The program is appended:
Gloria in Excelsis—Harrison.
Air A' La Bourree—Handel.
Am Meer—Schubert.

Two movements from Sonata (No. 3)—Gullmunt. 1. Allegro maestoso. 2. Adagio.
Vorspiel—"Lohengrin"—Wagner.

LeCigne (The Swan)—Saint-Saens.

Andante for fourth organ symphony—Widor.

Prelude de "La Damselle Elue"—Debussy.

Tocatta in F Major—Crawford.

GREATEST OF COMEDY
DRAMAS IS COMING

Lou Tellegen, that accomplished artist, who has risen to the height to which he honorably aspired, will on Saturday, Oct. 30 at the Grand, matinee and night, present himself (in person) and his own company, in a magnificent revival of his most famous American success, "Blind Youth," a comedy drama in three acts, which he wrote in collaboration with the celebrated playwright, Willard Mack, and which ran several months in New York, afterwards enjoying like runs in both Boston and Chicago.

Mr. Tellegen has achieved an enviable reputation not only as an artist of the first water, but as a author and producer, his work won the admiration and eulogiums of the press and public from coast to coast, and is this season making a trans-continental tour.

His supporting companies on different occasions have always included the highest type of talent, and this season is no exception to the rule, when one sees such well known players as Lorna Ambler, Juliette Crosby, Helen Grayce, Marcelle Bague, Kathryn Howard, Douglas S. Bright, George Deneuborg, Schuyler White and Russell Clark, in the roster of the organization.

"Blind Youth" has been given an entire new dress this season, the state settings and detail being identical with that used during the long runs of the play.

COX WOULD SIT DOWN WITH SENATE

Would Be Governed by Senatorial Elections—American Membership in League Should Not Be Postponed Two Years.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 25—Governor Cox of Ohio announced today that if elected president, he would sit down with the senate and make an "agreement" upon the league of nations and that his agreement should be determined by the senatorial elections.

"The executive will," the Democratic presidential candidate said, should not control and it is "unthinkable," he declared that American membership in the league should be postponed two years, when the next senatorial elections would be held. American membership, he indicated was the primary consideration. That favored American participation with clarifying reservations was reiterated by the governor.

VANDERLIP DENIES RUSSIAN STORIES

Says Moscow as Safe as Any City in the World—Gets Lease on Siberian Coal and Oil Land.

London, Oct. 25.—Washington D. Vanderlip of California, who recently visited Russia, has sent a telegram from Copenhagen saying he has concluded an extensive arrangement with the Russian soviet authorities by which an organization of western American financiers acquires a six year lease of a vast tract in northeastern Siberia with exclusive rights to develop coal, oil and fisheries.

He adds concerning his recent visit to Moscow:
"I am highly amused by stories contained in recent foreign papers about the rebellions in Russia. Moscow is as safe as any city in the world. Reports of rebellions and street fighting are absolutely false and are, I believe, foreign propaganda designed to prevent legitimate American business activity in this great Russian market."

MANY A PRETTY FACE SPOILED BY PIMPLES

Unightly Disfigurements Tell of Impure Blood

Don't close your eyes to the warning which nature gives, when unsightly pimples appear on your face and other parts of the body. Not only are these pimples and blotches disfiguring, but they lead to serious skin diseases that spread and cause the most discomforting irritation and pain. Sometimes they foretell Eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other annoyances that burn like flames of fire, and make you feel that your skin is ablaze. When these symptoms appear on any part of the body, take prompt steps to rid the blood of these disorders. And the one remedy which has no equal as a blood cleanser is S. S. S., the purely vegetable blood medicine, which has been on the market for more than fifty years. It is sold by druggists everywhere.

If you are afflicted with any form of skin disease do not expect to be cured by lotions, ointments, salves and other local remedies, as they cannot possibly reach the source of the trouble, which is in the blood. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write a complete history of your case to our chief medical adviser who will give you special instructions, without charge. MRS. FRED THIES DIES BY OWN HAND

Despondency Because of Ill Health Leads Mrs. Fred Thies of 606 West Superior Avenue to Take Own Life—Funeral Services This Afternoon.

Mrs. Rose Tendick Thies died shortly before 7 o'clock Sunday morning at her home, 606 West Superior avenue, as the result of slashing her throat with a razor. Mrs. Thies had been in ill health for a number of months and the depression resulting from this fact is what led to her act.

The remains were removed to the Gillham Funeral Home on West State street, and the funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Gillham Funeral Home. Rev. A. E. Powell, pastor of the Woodson Presbyterian church, will officiate and interment will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

It was the testimony of members of the deceased's family that she left her bed before daylight Sunday morning and started to descend the stairs. Upon being questioned she told her daughter she was going for a drink of water. The daughter offered to bring the water to her mother but the latter proceeded down the stairs.

Mr. Thies followed his wife to the lower floor of the residence and found her in the kitchen with an open razor in her hand. Before Mr. Thies could reach his wife she had drawn the blade once across her throat, but Mr. Thies succeeded in taking the weapon from her before further injury was done.

Dr. H. C. Woltman, the family physician, was at once summoned and all possible was done, but death came in about twenty minutes.

Coroner C. A. Rose held an inquest at the Gillham Funeral home later in the day, the jury finding that death was due to a wound in the throat inflicted by a razor in the hands of the deceased. The jury was composed of G. W. Patterson, B. M. Lacey, Frank Plepbering, H. F. Garrett, Walter Pemberton, and S. P. Angelo.

Mrs. Thies was born on May 6, 1864, the daughter of William and Rosina Tendick. She was united in marriage to Fred H. Thies, on Dec. 24, 1885, who survives her, together with the following children: Mabel L. of this city, Mrs. E. W. Sorrells of Woodson and George Thies of this city. One son, Walter Edward, preceded his mother in death a number of years ago. There also survive the following brothers and sisters: John W. Tendick, Jerseyville; Louis Tendick, El Paso, Texas; William Tendick, St. Louis; Charles Tendick, Frank Tendick and Peter Tendick, all of this city; Mrs. John German and Mrs. H. A. Vahl of Decatur; Mrs. Harry Branson of Rushville and Miss Lillian Tendick of this city.

Deceased was a member of Unity Presbyterian church and a woman who had the friendship and high regard of all who knew her.

Physician Testifies
Dr. H. C. Woltman being duly sworn, said:
About six o'clock a. m. I was called to the residence of Fred Thies, 606 West Superior avenue. When I arrived I found Mrs. Thies lying on the dining room floor, with a large wound across her neck. Her clothing and floor were saturated with blood; the wound appeared to have been made with a cutting instrument; the patient was in a dying condition; died in about twenty minutes. I was told the wound was inflicted by a razor. I was called to see her one day last week.

She was in a depressed mental condition. I was told by the family she had taken very little nourishment for quite a while; she had lost in weight about 75 pounds in the last three or four months. She has had diabetes for 10 years to my knowledge. She had a huge goitre which served to unbalance her nerves, which caused a poisoning, unbalancing her mind. Saturday afternoon Mrs. Sorrells, her daughter, called at my office to consult me as to what to do with her because of her mental condition.

Husband on Stand
Mr. Frederick Thies being duly sworn, said:
I reside at 606 West Superior avenue, Jacksonville, Ill. Have charge of dairy department of Illinois School for the Deaf, and am husband of the deceased. Mrs. Thies had been very nervous for the last few days and had been sleeping down stairs in the sitting room on a cot. The last two nights I had asked her to come upstairs and sleep with me as I was afraid she might do herself harm. She slept well both nights apparently. This morning a few minutes before six o'clock she arose and started to go down stairs. She stepped thru the door into my daughter's room leading to the stairway. The daughter asked her mama where she was going. Starting down the stairway Mrs. Thies answered that she wanted to get a drink of water. The daughter replied that she would get her a drink. By the time Mrs. Thies answered she was almost to the foot of the stairs. When I saw she wasn't going to stop I suspected something, hopped from my bed and ran down stairs as fast as I could. My daughter followed immediately. When I got to where my wife was she had the razor in her hand and was slashing her throat. I grabbed the razor; it had a calluloid handle. The razor blade fell on the other side to the floor while I held the handle crushed in my hand. She reached for the razor but could not find it in the dark, it was not yet daylight. I held her up while my daughter made a light and called the doctor. In the last forty-eight hours my wife had been more depressed than usual.

WESLEYAN GAME TO BE FRIDAY

Bloomington Team Will Play Illinois College Friday Afternoon—Visitors Going Good and Will Prove Strong Opponent.

Illinois Wesleyan will play Illinois College on Illinois field Friday afternoon. The game was originally scheduled for Saturday but Coach Harmon was able to get the date changed so that business men would have an opportunity to witness the game.

Wesleyan after losing two games showed a remarkable reversal of form and trimmed Eureka, a trick that she was not expected to do. The team is going good now according to Bloomington sport writers and will give Illinois the hardest battle she has had this year.

In Hausler, a half back, and Zook, who is captain and plays left end, Wesleyan has two of the strongest men in the conference. Both are dangerous and have scoring ability. Zook is especially strong at receiving forward passes while Hausler is a fine open field runner and line plunger.

Illinois is determined to keep her slate clean the remainder of the season and expects to win over Wesleyan Friday. The game promises to be a battle royal and fans are assured of seeing some nifty football when the whistle blows.

MANY EXCITING
"TRUMPET ISLAND"

It looked like the end of all happiness for Richard Bedell. The girl he had wooed back to health and reason on the desert island to the accompaniment of a mutual love was being taken away from him by the loathsome man she had been forced to marry.

A woman's scream broke sharply into Richard's bitter musings. Eve's husband was being attacked by the beachcombers who accompanied him, and he could see at a glance that they had him at their mercy. Eve was the woman he loved.

If he but waited a second the husband would be out of the way and there would be a solution of his misfortunes—and Eve's. The temptation was almost irresistible, but Richard's manhood was triumphant and he dashed into the light.

This is one of the exciting situations which make "Trumpet Island," the great Vitaphone special production now showing at Vollmer's Rialto one of the important screen events of the year. The production comes by its thrills rightly, for "Trumpet Island" is from a story by Gouverneur Morris, the famous author of fascinating yarns, and was furnished up for the screen by Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph Chester, noted writers of "Got-Rich-Quick-Wallington" and other enthralling tales.

Judging from the prices that others ask for caskets we have almost the right to expect them to be made of beaten gold, but we actually receive far less in return.

The caskets I carry are superior in workmanship to the Casket of Alexander the Great and there is a tremendous difference in the cost.

RED CROSS TO HAVE COMMUNITY STUDY

Miss Belden Will Be Here Next Week to Direct the Work—Many Community Problems Will Be Discussed.

Word has been received at local Red Cross headquarters that Miss Belden will come to Jacksonville next Monday to direct a Community Study which is to be made by citizens of Morgan county during the month of November. It is to be fostered by the Morgan County Chapter of the American Red Cross and directed by Miss Evelyn Belden, who is a Field Representative of the central division of the Red Cross. She comes from the Department of Surveys which conducts similar studies in the five states of the division: Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Michigan, Michigan and Wisconsin.

Dr. Carl E. Black will head the survey committee which will be composed of eight or nine members and the chairman of the eight sections of the survey. The organization is now being made and will be announced as soon as completed. The purpose of the study is to gather and evaluate information about the fundamental community problems, as follows: Health, Housing, Education, Recreation, Family and Child Welfare, Delinquency. Another subject, General Characteristics, will explain the historical, economical, agricultural and industrial factors which influence the life of our people and upon which the improvement of these and other conditions depend to a large degree.

What community projects are successfully in operation and what others are desired by the forward thinking persons of the county? What gaps exist? What, if any, duplication is there? What closer coordination and cooperation is desired?

In short, what is being done and should be done, to help individuals and raise the life of the people. From this study the Red Cross will determine upon its future program.

Each branch will have its own survey committee. The material will be gathered by persons working under the direction of the section chairmen. All the facts will be carefully studied by the survey committee and as a result final conclusions will be framed and presented to the people. Such a study touches the life of us all. Everybody is invited to consult with the committee and to think upon these subjects of better community opportunity.

SENATOR HARDING ISSUES STATEMENT

Believes People Will Recognize Superiority of Party as Instrumentality of Administration—Says Nation Is Determined to Be Done With Democratic Party.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Senator Harding, in a final pre-election statement to the American people, made public here tonight, declared the Republican party "goes to the people assured that they will recognize its superiority as an instrumentality of administration and that in the election now impending they will give it the certificate of their confidence and trust."

The Republican party nominee criticized the Democratic administration of governmental affairs, declaring "the nation is determined to be done with autocracy under the mere guise of Democratic forms." The Republican party, he asserted, "has proposed in its platform and developed in the utterances of its leaders, a program which contemplates equal opportunity for all," and "recognizes the vices of exploitation and profiteering."

As to the league of nations issues, Senator Harding summarized his party's position as follows:

Must Bear Full Part.
"The Republican party proposes * * * such an association of nations as will most effectively further the aspirations for world-wide and permanent peace without sacrificing any part of the independence of the American nation. It believes America can and must bear its full part in the responsibilities of the world, but it always believes that America alone must decide what part shall be."

Senator Harding's statement follows:

"In asking the suffrage of the American electorate this year the Republican party has in mind both the record of service from its beginning, whereof it is very proud, and the vision of opportunity for service in the future, which its spokesmen have presented during this campaign. We are asking that a great responsibility be imposed upon us. It is a responsibility that must be measured by both the gravity of the crisis that confronts the world and the incalculable with which the present administration has met the problems of the last few years. Onerous as it is the responsibility we seek, our party has no thought of evading, for it never has been guilty of that."

What Democratic Policies Brought.
"Democratic economic and administrative policies had brought this country to the danger of disaster before the outbreak of the war in Europe. The vast expansion of our export trade and demands upon our producing facilities, which came with the war saved us from immediate precipitation of that disaster. But that phase has now passed, and nothing but a return to this constructive and progressive policies which have always characterized the Republican administration can save us from early realization of the danger that confronted us in the middle of 1914."

"From the beginning of the war in Europe the Democratic administration steadfastly refused to prepare for the national defense in case we should be involved. In 1916, when it was apparent to most people that our country was in imminent danger of being drawn into the struggle, the Democratic party made its campaign on the boast that it kept us out of war, and the promise to continue to keep us out. Thus, when we found ourselves at last in the struggle, we were utterly unready for it, and our participation cost immeasurably more than it should have cost."

Unready for Peace.
"An administration that, when all the world was in conflagration refused to realize the importance of preparedness, of course could not be expected to realize while we were at war the necessity of preparing for peace. So we entered into peace quite as unready for it as we had been for war. Our economies were disorganized, our debt enormous, our foreign commerce devoted largely to supplying the necessities of war."

"Instead of setting itself to remedying these conditions, the administration devoted itself from the day of the armistice to promoting a project of world reorganization in which America should bear the largest responsibilities of guaranteeing a new scheme of things. Instead of making a legal peace as soon as actual peace had been made, American people, alone of all the warring nations, were denied by their government the privilege of a return to the legal status of peace and to the enjoyment of those rights which they had temporarily surrendered under the circumstances of war. So long as war was on, Republicans upheld the hands of the administration, forgetting party considerations, and gave their vote in support of war measures far more generously than did their political opponents. Yet an autocratic administration repaid this loyalty with the demand, in the campaign of 1918, that Republicans be removed from every position of influence and power. That demand the country rejected. It was the first time in the history of this nation that an administration had been defeated in the midst of a foreign war. That defeat would have been ample admonition to any administration not entirely absorbed in its own peculiar policies and purposes. But it apparently was unheeded by the powers at Washington. Neglecting the acute domestic situation, the administration suddenly conceived an interest in foreign affairs that contrasted impressively with its lack of concern for them in the period be-

DEAR OLD PETE:

Winston-Salem, N. C., Friday p. m.

Just wound up the one swellest day of my life! Since early this morning, when I got an invitation to visit R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories, I've been in the midst of millions of Camel cigarettes.

Man—the happiest idea you or I ever had as to the size of this Reynolds enterprise, or the number of Camels manufactured daily, is simply piker-stuff! Wipe off the slate and start fresh! Why—Pete, it seemed to me like a couple of those cigarette-making machines could keep half the nation smoking Camels steadily—BUT—honest to goodness, there are hundreds of these machines bating out Camels at the rate of 27,000 an hour—EACH!

Pete, you wouldn't have to consult a guide book to know you were in the Camel factories! The atmosphere is charged with that wonderful aroma you get when you open up a deck of Camels! And, you know, old elephant—you've had a trunk full!

As the Camels dropped into the containers I figured the delight each one would supply! And, how Camels mellow, mild body would hit the right spot and how Camels refreshing flavor would cheer up some smoker's jaded appetite! And, each Camel free from any unpleasant cigarettey aftertaste or unpleasant cigarettey odor! And—

Pete—I'll have to lay off and light another Camel! Write you some more soon.

Yours joyously

Chimera of World Reconstruction
"So, while immediate and practical concerns were being neglected, while reconstruction and reorganization of our own country were forgotten, the administration was devoting itself to the chimera of a world reorganization. The Republican congress, that had been elected in the Autumn of 1918, attempted to, of the administration, now about to retire from power, which seeks to have its policies perpetuated. The country will decline to give its confidence and its treasury deficit and bringing mandate to that party or those economy and system into our national finances. But the president vetoed that measure. The administration went right on spending vast sums in excess of our revenues, offering no constructive inspiration or leadership, apparently forgetting our difficulties in its engrossment with the chimera of world reconstruction.

"This, in a word, is the record of the administration, now about to retire from power, which seeks to have its policies perpetuated. The country will decline to give its confidence and its treasury deficit and bringing mandate to that party or those policies. It remembers that the Republican party fought the Civil War and afterward restored and unified the nation. It believes that the Republican party is capable of repeating that service, and because it so believes, it is going to return the Republican party to power."

THOUGHT HIS TIME HAD COME—DISAPPOINTED

"I never was more surprised in my life than when I took the first dose of May's Wonderful Remedy.
My stomach trouble had been of eight years' standing, sometimes so bad as to cause convulsions, followed by hemorrhage. I thought my time in this world was short,
and believed it the last medicine
I would ever take. It is now eight weeks since, and I am feeling better than for many years."
It is a simple, harmless prepara-

Peoria Manufacturer Recommends
Trutona Because He Knows
It's Excellent Tonic

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 25.—"I don't hesitate to recommend Trutona to anyone needing an excellent tonic," says Henry Holt, a well-known Peoria cigar manufacturer, who lives at 402 1/2 Elm street.

"My general system had been out of shape," he continued. "My appetite was poor. What little food I ate caused me to suffer from bloating and heartburn. I didn't rest well at night, and usually felt tired and draggy during the day. I was losing weight, and constipation bothered me a great deal."

"I've taken only one bottle of Trutona, but I'm convinced that it's an excellent tonic. I eat heartily now, and I'm not bothered with the former bloating and heartburn any more. I sleep soundly at night, too, and get up in the mornings feeling refreshed.

In fact, I'm just full of 'pep' since taking Trutona. This wonderful medicine has also regulated my bowels, and I'm regaining some of my lost weight now."

Composed of powerful ingredients, skillfully blended, Trutona goes straight to the seat of your trouble, rebuilds worn-out tissues, gives to you vitality and energetic which scoffs at hardships. A trial will convince you that there is no flaw in the compounding of Trutona, the Perfect Tonic. Try it today and enjoy the vigor of life which is sure to follow.

REPRESENTATIVE OF FEDERAL BOARD IN CITY

Federal Board for Vocational Education, Which Has Task of Re-educating and Retraining Disabled Ex-Servicemen Holding Sessions in Jacksonville.

The Federal Board of Vocational Education to which was delegated the enormous task of re-educating and retraining disabled ex-servicemen under the Soldiers and Sailors Rehabilitation Act, is holding a session in Jacksonville this week. The so-called "red tape" incident to the government claims is being cut with a vengeance. The representatives of the board here this week are prepared to "mop up" cases entitled to vocational education. They are anxious to see any and all men who are in need of vocational education because of a disability received in service cut traceable to the service residing either in Scott, Cass or Morgan counties at the office of the Red Cross, in the Library Building, Jacksonville on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

"If it is possible to get the necessary evidence of disability and connect it with the service, an ex-serviceman can be put in training before the end of the week and his name entered on the Government payroll at from $80 to $100 per month for living expenses," said Mr. Monceva Dunn, the representative of the Federal Board who is here today preparing the ground for the week, when a Federal Board physician and an eligibility officer representing the Washington office will be here to settle all cases that can be settled and to advance all other cases as far as possible toward final action.

"We want to see every man who thinks he needs and is entitled to this magnificent opportunity to get to be a 'going concern' again, even though he has previously been rated as not entitled to it, because on August first of the present year the Board was enabled to enlarge its scope of action to include all men who are in need of vocational rehabilitation in the opinion of the board, because of service disability during the past four months before August this year. The Board was compelled to classify disabled men as major and minor disabilities and give training with pay to those who were most in need of it first because the colleges and vocational schools of the country would not hold them and all therefore should not be filled with minor cases to the exclusion of men seriously disabled.

Eligibility Squad.

"This 'eligibility squad'," continued Mr. Dunn, "is trying to cover Central and Southern Illinois before Thanksgiving day and will hold sessions in several of the principal towns in this territory for that purpose. We are receiving excellent co-operation from the newspapers, the Legion and the Red Cross and expect to meet most of the men on this trip who need rehabilitation. Teachers are being sent to all men whose names and records indicate their necessities but we cannot reach them all with letters because there are many men really in need and entitled to this thing who have not applied either for it or 'compensation' from the Bureau of War Risk Insurance and we have no line on them unless they come in and state their case."

"Why didn't the Federal Board cut out the 'red tape' long ago and get down to business and train these men? There has been a lot of fault found on that account," ventured the reporter.

"Well that is another question," answered Mr. Dunn. "I am not expected to answer such questions as I know of, but I can and will if there is space. It was impossible to do it this way until recently. Vocational Education is a new thing in America. The country was not prepared for such work even as well as it was to do the job with had to be built while the job was going on. It had to be made in accordance with Civil Service laws. The frame work and foundation had to be built out of what was left available when war was actually on. The work had to be commenced at a time when it was utterly impossible to know how large an undertaking it was."

Many Cases in Illinois. "Do you realize that in these three states alone which constitute the Eighth District—Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin—there are more than fifty thousand men whose cases must be considered. Men enough to man a skirmish line from here to Chicago. Men with legs off, men with arms off, serious gun-shot wounded men of every nature, men with weakened hearts, gassed men, men with tuberculosis thousands of them and almost every systematic condition known to medical science. Every one of these cases must 'present proof on paper' before $2,000.00 a year should be spent to educate one of them."

"Many men who are actually disabled badly must not be put into training until they have been rebuilt by medical means as far as possible, it would be wrong to do it."

"Do you realize that practically every man in the country who was obviously disabled, and whose case could be determined quickly has already been offered training if he is fit for it? The hard ones to determine were the 'border line cases.' They necessarily take time. We are now enabled to practically pass by the very important question of 'line of duty disability' if a man has been awarded compensation for his injury. His case has been settled as to where and how he was injured by that department. We no longer have to wait for the war records to be searched in his case. Not long ago some of those records were not indexed so that

At the home of the groom's parents north of the city about three miles, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Black the newly wedded people were given a reception Saturday night, and received a great many nice presents. POULTRY SHOW WILL BE HELD IN AUTO INN

Annual Morgan County Exhibit Will be Week of December 13—Many Exhibits Expected From Other Cities.

The regular monthly meeting of the Morgan County Poultry association was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Ledford 653 East State street. The attendance was large and all the final arrangements were made for the exhibit to be held December 13th to 18th.

The largest show ever held in Morgan county is expected and the west half of Zahm's New Auto Inn has been engaged to stage the show. This building will be ideal for the purpose as it is well lighted and all birds can be shown to advantage.

Out of town breeders will send birds galore and the poultry lovers of Morgan county will see birds that will be a treat for their eyes and birds that it has taken years of skillful breeding to produce.

Admission will be free to all and the ladies of the poultry and rabbit associations will serve rabbit and chicken sandwiches on Thursday and Friday of the week.

Frank S. Tarbill of Havana has been engaged to judge the show and he comes well recommended as he has judged Quincy, Illinois state fair and show and other good shows thruout the country. With Mr. Tarbill the best bird wins.

Rabbit Breeders Affiliate.

The Morgan County Rabbit Breeders association will affiliate with the poultry association and the rabbit show will be held in connection with the poultry. Dr. A. E. Rives of East St. Louis will judge the rabbits and he comes with a number of splendid shows to his credit. All rabbit breeders can rest assured that the Doctor will give them a square deal.

The cash prizes on both the poultry and rabbits will be the best ever offered. More than $200 will be offered in special cash premiums alone. At the meeting last evening $69.50 was donated by eleven members and this will be offered on pens alone.

A forty page premium list and directory of members will be issued and Rev. W. E. Spooner, who has charge of this says it will be the best ever. A copy of this book will be mailed to every farmer and poultry breeder in this section of the state. Fourteen poultry journals are advertising this show and the officers have left nothing undone to make it one of the best ever.

The cooping will be uniform, all wire coops furnished by C. H. Darrow of O'Fallon, Illinois. Mr. Darrow coops all the big shows and does it right. While the prizes will be much better than in the past. The entry fee will be the same 25c for single birds and $1 for pens. Coops 15c per bird. James C. Weber will have charge of the show and he claims that he will put in on in real city style. Mr. Weber has had charge of the exhibits for the past nine years and knows just how to coop a bird to show it off to the best advantage, not only this he understands feeding and every bird that leaves the show goes back to its owner in as good if not better condition than when received.

Just a word to the local breeders. Look up your best birds. Give them a little extra care. Get them in condition to show for you are not going to have the walk-away that you have had in the past. Morgan county has awakened and is going to show you what a real poultry show is.

The premium list will soon be out copies may be had by calling or writing the secretary, Jas. C. Weber.

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE CLUB.

The Household Science club will meet with Mrs. J. M. Conover, 251 Webster avenue this afternoon at 2:30.

They could not be found. Many of them were lost in France. "On the whole it is the largest undertaking of its kind ever put over in the whole history of the world. This government is doing it the most completely of any government in the world. It may have seemed slow to those who only saw a dozen disabled men, but it hasn't been slowly by any means."

FINAL SUMMONS COMES FOR MRS. JANE K. WOOD

Long Time Resident of City Passed Away Monday Afternoon at 2 O'clock—Funeral Services From Late Residence Tomorrow Afternoon.

The death of Mrs. Jane K. Wood, a long-time resident of this city, occurred at her residence, No. 6 Duncan place, yesterday afternoon, October 25, at 2 o'clock. Services, at her request, will be in charge of the Rev. William S. Phillips of Carlinville, assisted by the Rev. E. L. Pletcher and Rev. T. H. Tull of this city. Interment will be in Oak Ridge cemetery, Springfield.

All the living children and the Rev. W. S. Phillips and Mrs. W. T. Wood, Mrs. Preston Wood, Jr., and Mrs. A. L. Wood, were at the bedside during her last illness.

Mrs. Wood was born in Montgomery county, Illinois, Nov. 13, 1831. She was the daughter of Thomas Caldwell and Lydia Grant ham Christian. Her family had been a prominent one in the south, its founders in this country having come over with Lord Baltimore at the time of the settlement of Maryland.

She was married to the Rev. Preston Wood at Hillsboro, Illinois, August 8th, 1853. Among the charges that they served together were Hillsboro, Beardstown, LeRoy, Decatur, Atlanta, Clinton, Lincoln, Carlinville and the Danville, Bloomington, Griggsville and Springfield districts. At all times she was a source of inspiration to her husband and a benediction to the charges they served though she was retiring and unassuming by nature. After the death of her husband in 1904, she disposed of her Springfield property and built the beautiful home in Duncan place, where she has since resided.

Nine children were born to her. Of these, Elizabeth, Eva Ellen, Charles Edward and the Rev. Preston, Jr., preceded her in death. Those remaining are Gen. W. T. Wood, U. S. A., of Washington, D. C., Mrs. W. S. Phillips, of Carlinville, Ill., Mrs. J. T. Galford of Clear Lake, Iowa, Miss Catherine Wood and Albert L. Wood of Jacksonville. There are eleven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren now living.

Mrs. Wood was a remarkable character and retained her clarity of mind to the end. She was devout without ostentation, a beautiful exemplar of true hospitality and was always of a serene and beautiful disposition. Many hearts here will be saddened but heaven will be enriched by her passing.
